Academic contact during examination: Håkon TjelmelandPhone: 4822 1896Academic contact present at the exam location: Yes, approximately 17.00OTHER INFORMATION*Language: Your answers may be given in Norwegian or English.Get an overview of the question set before you start answering the questions.

Read the questions carefully and make your own assumptions. If a question is unclear/vague, make your own assumptions and specify them in your answer. The academic person is only contacted in case of errors or insufficiencies in the question set. Address an invigilator if you suspect errors or insufficiencies. Write down the question in advance.

Hand drawings: For all the questions you should give your answers on handwritten sheets. At the bottom of the question you will find a seven-digit code. Fill in this code in the top left corner of the sheets you wish to submit. We recommend that you do this during the exam. If you require access to the codes after the examination time ends, click "Show submission".

Weighting: The exam consists of eight parts. These eight parts are given equal weight in the evaluation of your solution.

Notifications: If there is a need to send a message to the candidates during the exam (e.g. if there is an error in the question set), this will be done by sending a notification in Inspera. A dialogue box will appear. You can re-read the notification by clicking the bell icon in the top right-hand corner of the screen.

Withdrawing from the exam: If you become ill or wish to submit a blank test/withdraw from the exam for another reason, go to the menu in the top right-hand corner and click "Submit blank". This cannot be undone, even if the test is still open.

Access to your answers: After the exam, you can find your answers in the archive in Inspera. Be aware that it may take a working day until any hand-written material is available in the archive.
